

Foreign exchange and foreign currency operations

Conditions of FX accounts, managed for FX-non-resident/FX-resident natural entities

Effective as of 1 January 2015

According to the contract on current accounts, Takarékbank Zrt is entitled to unilaterally amend the interest rates, fees or costs stipulated by the Master Contract for Financial Services and in the documents and Conditions that form its inseparable annexes, provided there is a change in the legal or regulatory environment.

Our Customers were informed in our Conditions valid for natural persons as of 1 February 2014 that Act CLXXXIX of 2013 on the amendment of Act LXXXV of 2009 on Financial Services (hereinafter: Act) stipulates that from February 2014 to 31 December 2014 consumers are entitled to withdraw cash (subject to the advance submission of a written declaration to their account keeping institution) from the current account specified in their declaration free of service fees or other charges on no more than two consecutive occasions in any given month in an amount not exceeding 150 000 HUF.

According to the Act, entitlement for HUF-based cash withdrawal free of service costs and legally stipulated fees will, starting from 1 January 2015, only be valid for withdrawals carried out at ATMs in Hungary using cash substituting devices.

In light of the above and in consideration of the fact that bank cards may not be requested for FX accounts held at Cooperative Credit Institutions that act as agents of Takarékbank Zrt and for FX accounts held directly at Takarékbank Zrt, HUF-based cash withdrawal free of service costs and legally stipulated fees will no longer be possible from 1 January 2015. Conditions applicable to teller desk transactions from 1 January 2015 are listed in Chapter IV of the present Conditions.

The consumer is entitled to terminate the master contract with immediate notice without incurring any fees, costs or other applicable expenses until the day immediately preceding the day these Conditions become effective (1 January 2015). If no termination is made, the consumer is deemed by Takarékbank Zrt to have accepted the amendment to these Conditions.

Amended texts are shown in bold and italic fonts.

Takarékbank Zrt will inform the administrator of the Central Records maintaining records on declarations until 20 December 2014 at latest that the declarations submitted for cash withdrawals free from costs and fees from applicable FX accounts will lose effect as of 1 January 2015. The persons who submitted such declarations do not need to take any action for the above information to be provided.

I. Currency, FX, foreign trade purchase / mid / sale rates

The Financial Markets Business Unit announces the foreign currency, foreign exchange and foreign trade exchange rates effective on the given day for the following currencies:

GBP, AUD, DKK, JPY, CAD, NOK, CHF, SEK, USD, EUR, CZK, PLN

II. Interest-bearing of FX accounts

Foreign exchange accounts may be opened in any convertible currency listed by the Bank, except for AUD, CZK, and PLN, but only those foreign exchange accounts bear interest, concerning the FX type of which the Financial Markets Business Unit announces interest rates.

Among the foreign currencies the GBP interest rate applies the 365-day base, while the regarding the other FX interest rate the 360-day basis applies.

1. The interest bearing of the non-earmarked balance of the FX accounts:

The non-earmarked balance of the foreign exchange accounts bears sight-interest.

The effective foreign exchange deposit interest rates are determined by the Financial Markets Business Unit in regard of the following FX types: USD, CHF, GBP, EUR.

2. Earmarked FX-deposits:

The minimum balance which can be earmarked per FX type can be the amount equivalent to EUR 300 per FX.

The FX deposits can be earmarked fixed at the interest rates effective at the time of earmarking. The interest rate of earmarking regarding the given deposit does not change in course of the maturity period (fix interest bearing).

The effective foreign exchange deposit interest rates are determined by the Financial Markets Business Unit regarding the following FX types: USD, CHF, GBP, EUR.

Earmarking period: 1, 2, 3, 6, 9 and 12 months.

No interest is due concerning foreign exchange deposits terminated fully or in partially prior to the end of the maturity period. In case of partial termination, if the amount of the residue exceeds the amount which can minimally be earmarked (an amount equivalent to EUR 300), then the residual amount will bear interest in a non-changed manner, otherwise the amount will be transferred to the sight foreign exchange account.

3. Interest tax:

Interest credited/capitalized based on contracts, concluded with publicly announced conditions is considered as interest-income, which means the interest disbursed by the Bank to the bank account (both sight and earmarked).

All interests of bank accounts, opened for private individuals – including primary agricultural producers and condominiums as well – are subject to tax-payment obligation.

The volume of the tax rate regarding the interest-income outnumbers 16%.

The tax is deducted in foreign currency by the Bank from the interest-income deriving in foreign currency.

The date of obtaining interest: the date of crediting the interest.

The Bank does not take in consideration the following:

- the interest accounted regarding the deposits of the private entrepreneur clients as interest income.
- the income as wage, linked to which the appendix nr. 7 of the Law on taxation – concerning the interests disbursed for the foreign tax-payers – specifies data-service providing obligation for the credit institutions.

4. Health-care contribution

In accordance with the amendment of Act LXVI of 1998, effective as of 1 August 2013, private individuals are required to pay a health-care contribution of 6% on all interest income defined as a tax base by Section 65 of the Act on Personal Income Tax.

The health-care contribution deducted from the interest income and its base is reported by the paying party in a gross form, as a payment obligation that is not associated with private individuals.

The deduction of the health-care contribution from the interest income as well as its payment is carried out by the Bank.

III. Deposit insurance terms and conditions

VI. General terms and conditions of FX turnover on FX accounts managed by the MTB

The Bank exclusively completes commissions in those FX-types, in which it possesses nostro accounts at other Banks, which are the following:

EUR, USD, GBP, DKK, JPY, CAD, NOK, CHF, SEK, CZN, PLN.

- a. The Bank exclusively undertakes arrangement of FX transfer commissions, precise from content, language and form point of view, signed in a reported manner by the Bank and undertakes responsibility for their arrangement.
 - b. The Bank shall accept orders from the client for processing on material date if the order in case of paper-based orders is lodged until 1 p.m. (on Friday until 11 a.m.), in case of orders submitted electronically, until 1 p.m. Orders submitted after this shall be deemed to have been lodged on the following working day.
 - c. The Bank – adequate to the effective regulations - in case of undertaking of obligations – insists on the fact that the coverage shall be assured.
The Bank accounts the counter-value of the foreign exchange transfer commission on the day of acceptance (D-day) by the following currency-days:
 - commissions in lack of conversion to be completed in EUR and USD currencies D+1 days,
 - commissions to be completed in lack of conversion other FX types (non-EUR and USD) D+2,
 - conversion commissions to be completed in EUR and USD FX types D+1, and
 - conversion commissions to be completed in other FX types D+3.
 - d. In case of the conversion FX transfer commissions the counter-value of the transferred amount valid on D working-day at MTB Preferential FX sale/purchase rate is burdened on the bank account of the client.
 - e. The completion-deadline of shorter items – in urgent status – differing from above.
The commissions launched by urgent status are completed by the Bank at charging of urgency fee – by D+1 value day at the following cases:
 - commissions in lack of conversion, submitted until 8.00 hours, to be completed in other FX types (non-EUR and USD),
 - conversion commissions submitted until 8.00 hours, to be completed in other FX types (non-EUR and USD),
 - commissions in lack of conversion, submitted until 13.00 hours (on Fridays: until 11.00 hours) to be completed in other FX types (non-EUR and USD) (at providing of a separate coverage)
- In case the Bank cannot provide coverage for D+1 currency-day, then the commission is completed by D+2 currency-day, in lack of charging of a urgency fee.
- Conversion commissions submitted at the Bank until 13.00 hours (on Fridays: until 11.00 hours) in other FX types with urgent status – at charging of an urgency fee, will be completed by the Bank depending on coverage-providing on D+1 or D+2 currency day.
- Commissions in lack of conversion, initiated in EUR and USD FX types are completed according to point c.).
- f. In case of items with conversion of urgent status, the exchange among the various currency types takes place at D. working-day MTB Preferential FX sale/purchase rates.

g. The following chart indicates the summary of the completion-deadline concerning the outgoing FX transfer commission, the urgency fee and rate applying:

* subject to the separate coverage-providing of the Takarékbank Zrt.

h. The Bank credits the FX-amounts, incoming to the bank account of the client – based on the settlement vouchers received from the Takarékbank Zrt., on the identical working-day of informing of the partner-bank,

- within the EGT, or regarding the commissions initiated in EGT-currency by the value-day indicated in the information of the partner-bank, identical with the day of coverage-providing (interest-day)
- in regard of commissions beyond EGT and non-initiated in the EGT currency by the value-day identical with the information of the partner-bank (interest-day).

In case the day of coverage-providing, indicated in the notice of the partner-bank is of later than the day of informing +1 or + 2 working days, then the incoming transfer is credited by the day of coverage-providing and the value-day identical with that.

- i. The Bank undertakes the completion-deadline according to point h.) regarding the FX-transfer commissions incoming through the SWIFT system until 17.00 hours, the transfers incoming following the closing-time are considered as received on the next working day.
- j. The counter-value of the incoming transfers is calculated at the MTB Preferential FX purchase/sale rate, valid on the working-day when the transfer is processed by the Bank.
- k. HUF-transfers made to the customer from abroad are processed by the Bank on the day the transfer is made, provided that the associated SWIFT message is received by 17h on the same day. With regard to HUF-transfers from abroad with SWIFT messages received after the time specified before, the transfer is regarded as received on the following working day.
- l. The book-transfer type of transactions, accepted until clearing-closing of the account managing venue, are credited on D-day.
- m. In regard of the book-transfer type of transactions the charging of the commission always takes place on the on the debiting side, the crediting is free of charge.

- n. For completion of the commissions, the Bank charges the deal-commissions published in the prevailing effective Announcement.
- o. The Bank deducts the commissions and costs linked to the account-operations in the FX type of the account.
- p. Calculation of the commission-items, determined in a fix amount takes place at all times at the daily MTB Preferential FX mid-rates.
- q. Beyond the items included in the Announcement, the commissions and costs charged by the Hungarian and foreign banks participating in arranging of the commissions – burden the commissioning side – except the commission includes a stipulation of contradiction and Takarékbank can enforce that as well.
- r. In regard of account-conversion beyond EUR 100,000 the conversion can take place at individual rate as well, in that case the transactions are free of commission. The conversion can take place:
- by book-transfer among the own HUF and FX accounts of the client
 - through disbursement from the FX account in differing currency type or HUF
 - through pay-in to FX account in a differing currency-type or HUF.
- s. In case of transfers exceeding EUR 100,000 the conversion can take place by individual rate as well at charging of the transaction-commissions.
- t. In regard of FX-deposits reaching the value of EUR 50,000 or other FX deposits adequate to that, determination of the interest takes place individually. Concerning individual FX deposits the volume of the Unified Deposit Rate of Interest Index is included in the certificate issued by the Bank.
In case of individual FX-deposits the interest-correction – deviation from the volume of the announced interest – depending on the amount of the deposit placed: is the volume between 1/16 – 1/4.
- u. The interest and rate charts are included in a separate announcement.
- v. In lack of the payment-commission based on the crediting indicated on our invoices (only in the extract) we are not able to complete payment.
- w. Bearing of foreign bank-cost (OUR/BEN/SHA)
FX-transfers can be initiated by cost-bearing indicated in the following:

	in the currency of the EER	in the currency of a non-EER member **
within EER* - conversion	SHA, OUR	SHA, OUR
within the EER* - non-conversion	SHA	SHA, OUR
beyond EER* – conversion	SHA, OUR, BEN	SHA, OUR, BEN
beyond EER* - non-conversion	SHA, OUR, BEN	SHA, OUR, BEN

The ways of bank-cost-bearing are the following:

1. at divided cost-bearing (SHA), both the commissioning side and the beneficiary bear the bank-cost charged by his own bank/correspondent bank in that case the bank of the commissioning side - at charging of its own commission to the burden of the commissioning side – forwards the total amount, the beneficiary bank-cost is deducted from the transferred amount, which means that the amount deducted by the bank-cost is credited on the account of the beneficiary.
2. at cost-bearing of the beneficiary (BEN) the total amount of the transfer (the transaction fee of the commissioning bank, its commission and the bank cost of the beneficiary – foreign – is borne by the beneficiary, at this cost-bearing type at completion of the commission – the commission of the commissioning bank (placed in the premises of the account managing venue) according to Announcement – is deducted from the amount of the commission. Also the beneficiary bank-cost is deducted from the transferred amount. Adequate to that the amount deducted both by the commissioning and beneficiary bank-cost is credited on the account of the beneficiary.

3. at cost-bearing by the commissioning side (OUR) the total cost of the transfer (the transaction-fee of the commissioning bank, and the beneficiary-foreign-bank-cost) is paid by the commissioning side, in that case the bank of the commissioning side – at charging of his own commission to the burden of the commissioning side – forwards the total amount, the amount of the commission is credited without deduction on the account of the beneficiary side, the beneficiary bank-costs are charged subsequently – based on the bank-burdening of the beneficiary or cost-request – on the account of the commissioning side.

VII. General terms and conditions of FX account managing (in regard of commissioned FX account managing)

The Savings Cooperative engaged in managing FX-accounts (as a premium tied agent) upon commission from Takarékbank exclusively accepts commissions in those FX types, in which the Takarékbank possesses nostro account at other Banks, these are the following: EUR, USD, GBP, DKK, JPY, CAD, NOK, CHF, SEK, CZN, PLN.

 - through disbursement from the FX account in differing currency type or HUF
 - through pay-in to FX account in a differing currency type or in HUF.
- t. In case of the transfer beyond EUR 100,000 the conversion can take place by individual rate as well at charging of the transaction-commissions.
- u. In regard of FX deposits reaching the value of EUR 50,000 or deposits denominated in other currencies the amount of which equals this amount, the determination of the interest takes place individually. Concerning the individual FX deposit the volume of the Unified Deposit Rate of Interest Index is included in the certificate issued by the Bank.
 In case of individual FX-deposits the interest-correction – deviation from the volume of the announced interest – depending on the amount of the deposit placed: is of the volume between 1/16 – 1/4.
- v. The interest and rate charts are included in a separate announcement.
- w. Bearing of foreign bank-cost (OUR/BEN/SHA)

FX-transfers can be initiated by cost-bearing indicated in the following:

	in the currency of the EER	in the currency of a non-EER member **
within EER* - conversion	SHA, OUR	SHA, OUR
within the EER* - non-conversion	SHA	SHA, OUR
beyond EER* – conversion	SHA, OUR, BEN	SHA, OUR, BEN
beyond EER* - non-conversion	SHA, OUR, BEN	SHA, OUR, BEN

The ways of cost-bearing are the following:

1. at divided cost-bearing (SHA), both the commissioning side and the beneficiary bear the bank-cost charged by his own bank/correspondent bank in that case the bank of the commissioning side - at charging of its own commission to the burden of the commissioning side – forwards the total amount, the beneficiary bank-cost is deducted from the transferred amount, which means that the amount deducted by the bank-cost is credited on the account of the beneficiary.
2. at cost-bearing of the beneficiary (BEN) the total amount of the transfer (the transaction fee of the commissioning bank, its commission and the bank cost of the beneficiary – foreign – is borne by the beneficiary,
 at this cost-bearing type at completion of the commission – the commission of the commissioning bank (placed in the premises of the account managing venue) according to Announcement – is deducted from the amount of the commission. Also the beneficiary bank-cost is deducted from the transferred amount. Adequate to that the amount deducted both by the commissioning and beneficiary bank-cost is credited on the account of the beneficiary.

3. at cost-bearing by the commissioning side (OUR) the total cost of the transfer (the transaction-fee of the commissioning bank, and the beneficiary-foreign-bank-cost) is paid by the commissioning side, in that case the bank of the commissioning side – at charging of his own commission to the burden of the commissioning side – forwards the total amount, the amount of the commission is credited without deduction on the account of the beneficiary side, the beneficiary bank-costs are charged subsequently – based on the bank-burdening of the beneficiary or cost-request – on the account of the commissioning side.
